To Whom It May Concern

Subject: Bahrain Royal Charity Organisation (RCO)

It is a great honour to commend the Bahrain Royal Charity Organisation (RCO) for their outstanding contributions and achievements not only to the people of Bahrain, but also to those in need around the world.

The Royal Charity Organisations’ (RCO’s) initiatives towards the public, and to those who require assistance have greatly benefitted through the many Bahrain Royal Charity Organisation (RCO) projects within the Kingdom of Bahrain, such as:

- General Sponsorship to 5000 Orphans and 5000 Widows of the Kingdom of Bahrain
- Assistance to the needy people (Medical Treatment, Marriage, Emergency)
- Social Responsibility
- Livelihood Assistance
- Scholarship until Graduating from University
- Development Project (Naser Vocational Center, Kindergarten School)
- Investment Project for fundraising to support the above activities

The Bahrain Royal Charity Organisation (RCO) has also graciously responded to numerous appeals for assistance from other Countries who are suffering from crises of their own, ranging from: drought, civil war, typhoon, flood, earthquake and sickness.

Challenges of distance and danger did not stop The Bahrain Royal Charity Organisation Team (RCO) in reaching out to the following countries in order to deliver a high level of humanitarian assistance, which was tirelessly being called for by the following international communities:

- Gaza (Hospital and School)
- Somalia (Hospital, University and Water Boreholes)
- Jordan (School and Housing Project)
- Philippines (Vocational Schools)
- Nepal (Earthquake relief assistance)
- Egypt (Educational and Medical Facilities)
- Pakistan (Relief aid)
- Yemen (Relief aid)
- Turkey (Relief aid)
- Ebola Fund contribution
All of the accomplishments by the Bahrain Royal Charity Organisation inside and outside of the Kingdom are all testimonies of the value that is being given to every individual. In every single effort and helping hand being extended, it is a lifeline being re-fueled and given another chance at a better living condition.

An award is a humble and fitting recognition not only to the tireless work of the men and women of the Royal Charity Organization and the citizens of Bahrain, but is also a voice and a face being given to every impoverished person, to every girl or boy who has been left by their fathers, by every widow and by every person reaching their hand out to receive a better life in spite of the hardships.

Yours sincerely,
